FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

During the season of Lent we are challenged to open our hearts to the call of Christ. The events of Holy Week and Easter remind us that the victory of Jesus can be ours if our lives find their model in Him. We must always remember that the great Easter truth is not that we are to live newly after death, but that we are to live nobly and spiritually now because we are to live forever. Therefore, every liturgy is a celebration of our Lord's Resurrection and we should challenge ourselves each and every day to live lives of love, peace and forgiveness. The love of Jesus and His Resurrection are a way of life.

One can only imagine the intense feelings of joy and relief Mary Magdalene, Simon Peter, and the other apostles experienced when they realized their Jesus had Risen from the Dead. With their experiences of the Resurrection, they realized that the darkness of Jesus' death had turned into the light of everlasting life. Sin and death had been conquered, and peace and love would now reign supreme.

As we celebrate Easter today, I pray that we all have the same love each and everyday as a people of the Resurrection. Let us all share Jesus' Gospel of love, peace and charity by forgiving our brothers and sisters.

Deepest thanks to you for your kindness and generosity at this time. On behalf of the priests, deacons and staff of St. Alexander Parish, I pray that the Risen Christ and His loving Mother bless you with joy and much spirituality. May you have an Easter that is filled with God's gift of our Lord Jesus Christ.

God Bless,
Father Marty

Please Note:

There will only be one Mass
on Monday, April 2th at 9:00AM

Home Bound or Ill?

If you, or someone you know, are unable to attend Mass and would like to receive communion in their home, please call Deacon Jim Horton at 708-448-4861, ext. 232.

Parish Office Easter Holiday Hours

The Parish Administrative Offices will be closed on Monday, April 2nd

Easter Sunday is the greatest of all Sundays, and Easter Time is the most important of all liturgical times.

Easter is the celebration of the Lord's resurrection from the dead, culminating in his Ascension to the Father and sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. There are 50 days of Easter from the first Sunday to Pentecost. It is characterized, above all, by the joy of glorified life and the victory over death, expressed most fully in the great resounding cry of the Christian: Alleluia! All faith flows from faith in the resurrection: "If Christ has not been raised, then empty is our preaching; empty, too, is your faith." 1 Cor 15:14)

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Just a reminder that Divine Mercy Sunday is next Sunday. Jesus gave a message to Sr. Faustina about His mercy. He wants to pour out His mercy on souls at the hour of His death, 3:00 PM. He said, "I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My passion."

Join us in praying the Divine Mercy on Sunday, April 8th at 2:30 PM.

Please come early for a showing of the movie "Divine Mercy 101" at 1:15 PM in Room 311.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

On Easter morning everything--the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music--everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today's scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the Resurrection and sing "Alleluia!"

In the scriptures today we hear from Peter and Paul and John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John's Gospel account includes Mary of Magdala, who also was privileged to witness the Resurrection and tell others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday can we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive and active in our lives

Easter 2018

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord Jesus,

The news today seems to be dominated by death-dealing forces and foreclosed possibilities. This past year has brought us a plague of gun-violence, streams of helpless refugees in different parts of the world, struggles in our own nation around questions of immigration and racism, countless victims of natural disasters, and large numbers of people who are—in the words of Pope Francis— "discarded." There seems to be scant room for hope and optimism.

Yet, we know by our own experience as believers and our common bonds of faith that this is not the full story of reality. There, indeed, is other news, the good news of our Easter faith. Christ has conquered all death and evil. Christ is risen!

When we profess our faith in the risen Lord, we do not deny the pain and suffering at work in our world. The risen Christ himself bears his wounds of his suffering, but he is risen. He has conquered sin and death, and our victory is certain. We hold a great hope in him who leads forward. But, it does not end there, for as St. Paul tells us, all of that we celebrate in these days has taken place so that we "might live no longer for ourselves but for him who died for our sakes and was raised."

In the Archdiocese of Chicago, our commitment to Renew My Church means that we take our Easter faith seriously to the point that it becomes the source of new energy for communities and individuals who share our faith with the world and bring it hope the world cannot take away.

May our faith in the Risen Lord be alive in our hearts, and may we share that gift widely and generously with others.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Card. Blase J. Cupich

In this beautiful Lighthouse Talk, Monsignor James Shea guides us along the Stations of the Cross, teaching us how to open our hearts more to the suffering and loneliness of Jesus on His way to Calvary.

Weaving together the insights of keen believers like Father Richard Neuhaus, Caryll Houselander, Archbishop Fulton Sheen, and Dr. James Edwards, these powerful meditations take us into the depths of Christ's agony and back out again into the joy of what His sacrifice means for us.
