Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy)
April 12, 2026

The Palos Catholic

2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to him,
“Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”
- Jn 20:29

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Many thanks to those parishioners who gave generously to our collections this Lenten and Easter season. As you remember, the Holy Thursday collection was for our St. Vincent de Paul Society, Good Friday's collection was for the Holy Land, and naturally the Easter collection and Sunday offering were for our parish. Due to your generosity to our flower collection, we were able to decorate our church in a most spiritual and beautiful fashion.

With the conclusion of Holy Week and the Easter Sunday liturgies, I reflect and realize how powerful, spiritual and beautiful these services are and how they touch our hearts. Many who attended Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil commented on how they were spiritually moved and uplifted by the liturgies. In order for the Lenten and Easter season services to function smoothly, it takes the time and effort of many people. On behalf of the parish, I would like to express a big heartfelt thanks to the altar servers, lectors, communion ministers, ushers, choirs, musicians, sacristans, Fr. Mitchell, our visiting priests, Deacon Jim, Deacon Mike, Deacon Fran, the parish staff, and to all those who participated in our Holy Week and Easter liturgies. Special thanks to all those who spent countless hours designing and decorating our church, configuring the church lights, and cleaning our church ensuring it would be beautiful for Masses and services.

During the Easter Vigil Katie Pall and Hannah Majercak joined the Catholic faith by being Baptized, receiving First Holy Communion, and the Sacrament of Confirmation. Let us make sure that we keep Katie and Hannah in our prayers and encourage those we meet to become a part of our OCIA program and join our beautiful faith.

It is always great when people embrace the Catholic faith and are baptized and are fully received into the Catholic church. If you know a family member, neighbor, co-worker, etc. who would like to convert or needs to be fully initiated in the Catholic faith, please encourage them to contact the parish office and we will explain the OCIA program. Please remember that we are all called in Baptism to be apostles of Christ and to bring people to the faith and our church. Many thanks to Deacon Mike and our OCIA team who prepared Katie and Hannah as they received their sacraments, were instructed in our Catholic traditions, Sacraments, and the history of our Roman Catholic church.

God Bless,
Father Marty

TODAY IS DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The Divine Mercy Holy Hour will start at 2:30PM

Please join the Blue Army of Our Lady of Fatima and the Knights of Columbus in a Holy Hour which will include Benediction, the Rosary, and the Divine Mercy Chaplet "On that day (Divine Mercy Sunday) the very depths of my tender mercy are opened. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of my Mercy...on that day, all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened."

(Diary of St. Faustina)

WORD OF LIFE

If you or someone you know has had an abortion, be assured that it is never too late to seek God's forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Additionally, other confidential, compassionate help is available. Select "Find Help" from the menu on www.hopeafterabortion.org to find the diocesan Project Rachel Ministry near you.

Prayers
 FOR HEALING

Prayers of the Faithful for the Sick

As the faith family of St. Alexander, we unite with one another to pray for those who need healing of their body, mind or spirit. Confident that God hears the voices of those who trust in the Lord Jesus, we join in prayer for:

Lisa Krisik	Elizabeth Hannan Hurley
Edward Weir	Thomas Boll
Molly Flynn	Gerry McCall
Carol Miller	Barb Chwierut
Asher Bryant

If you or anyone in your family would like to be added to our Prayers of the Faithful for the Sick please contact the Parish Administrative Office by noon on Friday.

Blessing of Love

Heavenly Father, Ignite us with Your love.
 Reveal to us Your will, guide us in Your path.
 Pour Your blessings upon us,
 You who are the giver of every good thing.
 Help us to live, work, act, and speak in ways that bring honor and glory to You. Amen.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

"Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.'" (John 20:27)

In my early 20s, I volunteered at a parish youth group. I witnessed teens encountering Jesus with a fresh, romantic wonder that reminded me of my own teenage conversion. But something had changed in me. I was quietly jaded and cynical. When teens shared stories of encountering Christ, I'd want to sarcastically murmur, "Well, good for you." I had grown suspicious of the zeal I once knew.

Then we brought the group on a pilgrimage. I was standing in an old church in France, ignoring a long-winded tour guide. I found myself before a crucifix. In that moment, I heard something, not audibly, but unmistakably in my heart: "I came to be your friend... and you wish to be my enemy? Why do you stand far from me? I suffer gladly for you. I was pierced for you. Why do you run from me?" My heart opened. I saw how cold and cynical I had become. But Jesus had not given up on me. He had returned, and his mercy broke through.

So I can relate to the scoffing — and transformation — of Thomas when the Risen Jesus presents his wounds for inspection. Thomas is not simply doubting; he is guarded, suspicious, even cynical. But Jesus comes to him. No lecture. Just understanding and mercy. He invites Thomas to touch his wounds. This burns away his cynicism like the morning mist.

Divine Mercy Challenge: This week, rejoice with someone who is newly alive in faith. If your own heart has grown skeptical or tired, ask Jesus to help you. He will.

— Father John Muir

ST. ALEXANDER SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

8th Grade Passion Play

Dear Parishioners,

The members of our St. Vincent dePaul/St. Alexander Conference would like thank you for your overwhelming generosity. We also would like to share with you some of the programs sponsored by our Conference due to your extraordinary support.

The monetary donations collected on Holy Thursday and Thanksgiving are used to help pay utility bills, food, clothing, and house payments. We also help families with book fees and other school related supplies.

The monetary donations are also used to support the Port bread truck. Once a month we have a group of volunteers who make ham and cheese sandwiches. These sandwiches are picked up by the Port bread truck and given out to residents of the Southside of Chicago. The sandwiches serve hundreds of people.

Our meetings are generally held the first Thursday of the month in the parish administrative building at 5:00 PM. We are always in need of members. If you are interested please contact the parish office at 708-448-4861 and ask for Fran.

We want to express our deepest gratitude to you, thank you. Your kindness shows the tenderness of your heart, the love you have for others and your understanding of our beautiful Catholic faith.

God Bless,

The St. Alexander SVdeP Conference
