FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This Thursday, the Fourth of July, we celebrate the birth of our great nation. As we witness the governments in many countries throughout the world we see many people who live under dictatorships and other forms of rogue regimes. As a result the population of these nations suffer from poverty, lack of educational opportunities, and many other travesties. We here in America are blessed to live in a country where we have fair elections, due process of law, liberty, justice, and freedom of religion. While celebrating the Fourth of July, let us remember and appreciate the great country we live in, and the people throughout the years who have laid down or risked their lives for the United States of America.

Our Mass on the Fourth of July will be at 8:30AM, please join us as we celebrate the men and women who gave so much so that we can be the great country we are today. Let us never forget that our nation is based on faith and the principles of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. Please note that the Parish Administrative Office will be closed on July 4th. No matter what our nationality or where we were born let us all remember that we live in the greatest nation on God's green earth. Even though I was rooting for the Edmonton Oilers in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, the Florida Panthers won. I guess I should be happy that the Stanley Cup remains in the United States.

Thanks to all parishioners who came out and enjoyed our Annual Parish Picnic on June 23rd. The weather was perfect, the food was great, and a good time was had by all. It was so good to see our loving community gathered together with people of all ages relaxing and celebrating our great parish. Many thanks to the Thomas Carr family who once again provided the tent which gave necessary shade and protection. This year we went to the old system of grilling our own hamburgers, hot dogs, and brats in which everybody enjoyed. I know last year things went a little slow with the truck and we corrected the problem by doing it the old fashioned way, ourselves. Next year I will remember to pick up more ice cream from Sam's because we can never have enough ice cream. I still enjoy being the "popcorn boy" and visiting with people as I move around the crowd. As I stated last year, walking around with popcorn is a promotion from being pastor. Let us once again thank the Lord we all had a good time and the temperature was 82 degrees and not 94 degrees. Please turn to pages nine, ten, and eleven in our bulletin for pictures of the picnic. Finally, a big thank you to the Palos Heights Fire Department who came out with their fire truck and cooled off our children as they doused them with water. The members of the fire department were very friendly, had a great attitude, and reminded us of how important they are in servicing our community.

God Bless,
Father Marty

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle. Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

— Father John Muir

ST. ALEXANDER SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Janet Crowley retired after 33 years at St. Alexander School.
 Mrs. Diane Lee retired after 33 years at St. Alexander School.
 Mrs. Rae Anne Haines retired after 25 years at St. Alexander School.
 Mrs. Karen Kaminski retired after 25 years in education with her last 3 years have been here at St. Alexander School.

All four women were honored at the all school Mass on the last day of school.

Thank you for your dedication to Catholic education and St. Alexander School!

Pictured is the 4th grade homebound friend, Grace Wetzel, being read her cards by her granddaughter Mary Kate Wetzel (class of 2010). Not only did three of Grace's grandchildren graduate from St. Al's, but all five of her children graduated from here as well!

Each month the students of St. Alexander send out over 200 cards to homebound parishioners to brighten their day and remind them that someone is thinking of them and sending prayers.

St. Theodore Guerin Council 14057 Knights of Columbus helped St. Alexander School celebrate the close of the school year by providing a hot dog lunch for the students and faculty.

RCIA

Are you curious about the Catholic Faith?
If any of these reasons apply, RCIA might be exactly what you're looking for!

(RCIA means The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

1. You're marrying a Catholic. (Sharing and practicing your faith together is a great foundation for married life.)
2. You're already married to a Catholic and your children are being raised Catholic. (It's natural to want to feel a closer bond by sharing in the sacraments with family.)
3. Your children are learning about the Catholic faith. (You'd like to learn more about this faith tradition, still unsure if you'd like to become a Catholic..)
4. You've lived in a "Catholic world" all your life, so people assume you are already Catholic. (You'd like to find out if you are closer than you think in mind and heart.)
5. You don't know much about Catholicism, but a friend or neighbor has inspired you to learn more. (With no strings attached, this is a wonderful way to check things out.)
6. You have experienced personal loss or family struggles. (You are seeking ways to deepen your spiritual life by exploring the Catholic faith tradition.)

You don't know why, but you feel something urging you to the Catholic Church. (It's probably the Holy Spirit.)

Our RCIA sessions begin in September. If you are interested in joining us, contact Fr. Marty at the parish office (708) 448-4861 or Deacon Mike at mciciura@archchicago.org
