The Palos Catholic

THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Jesus said to Nicodemus:
"No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven,
the Son of Man." For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.
- Jn 3:13, 17

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Thanks to all parishioners who came out and enjoyed our Annual Parish Picnic on September 7th. The weather was perfect, the food was great, and a good time was had by all. It was so good to see our loving community gather together with people of all ages relaxing and celebrating our great parish. Many thanks to the Thomas Carr family who once again provided the tent which gave necessary shade and protection. Also thanks to the staff and those parishioners who worked and pitched in and made the day go smoothly. It appears to be that everybody likes the old system of us grilling our own hot dogs and hamburgers instead of using hired food trucks. Let us once again thank the Lord we all had a good time and the temperature was about 70 degrees and not 94 degrees and humid. Please turn to pages six and seven for pictures of our picnic.

This coming week we welcome back all students in our Religious Education Program. I pray that this will be once again a successful year for our students and volunteer teachers. We have an excellent program and if you know of anybody looking for an RE program in our area please tell them to call Tyler Ried in the RE office at 708-448-6624. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer teacher please contact Tyler. Please know that you will be trained and you are certainly worthy of participating in this ministry when you use the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Many times throughout the year we receive requests for services from people we do not know. Many of these requests entail a moral obligation. We are asked to verify that a person is a practicing Catholic; we are asked to marry someone who is not registered in the parish. There is a Church law that requires a pastor know the people before he gives information or permission for any sacrament. It is quite difficult and embarrassing at times to question people unnecessarily. Often the people concerned become upset. There is an easy solution to these problems; become a registered, known, contributing, and active parishioner. Young people need to register in the parish in which they reside. Once a person finishes school, gets a job, or is married, they take on a new identity and a new home. They no longer come under the registration of their parents. Much grief can be avoided by registering, so PLEASE register. It will be of great help if one would like to receive a sacrament at St. Alexander or obtain a letter of recommendation to become a sponsor for Confirmation or Baptism. You may call 708-448-4861, or stop by the Parish Administrative Center to register.

God Bless,
Father Marty

A Prayer for "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us. In every age and in our own time, you call to us and say: Renew My Church.

*Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us*

to hear you clearly to listen to each other attentively to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously

to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints.

May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

We ask you to remember and pray for the souls of the faithful departed. May they forever rest in the Lord's peace. We especially pray for:

Marilyn Reddy, mother of Tom

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

One of my favorite movies is the 1991 comedy What About Bob? Bill Murray plays a troubled, paranoid hypochondriac named Bob Wiley who innocently but annoyingly hounds Dr. Leo Marvin, played by Richard Dreyfuss. Bob is paralyzed by his fear of, well, everything, and is convinced the psychologist can heal him. But Dr. Marvin's failed attempts to heal Bob end up driving the doctor to attempt to murder Bob. He fails. The surprise is that, having faced death head on, Bob is suddenly healed. He attributes his healing to Dr. Marvin for break-through "death therapy." In facing the cause of his deepest illness and dysfunction, Bob is healed.

Underneath this light-hearted comedy is a dead-serious resonance with this week's feast: the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Christ is lifted up on the cross to force us to face the truth of sin and death. In that reckoning we find healing. Like Moses' snake on a pole, the cross says: this is what is causing your sickness – rebellion, disobedience, sin. Look at it! Don't run from it. Now seeing it exposed, we see life. We see our physician mercifully healing us. In this sense, we are all like Bob Wiley. The "death therapy" of the cross is our only hope for healing.

This week I invite you to "exalt the cross." If you don't have one in your house, get one. Use it for prayer. Gaze on it frequently. It teaches us to not be afraid. It heals us.

— Father John Muir
