FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Once again, our Ninth Annual Trivia Night will be held Saturday, November 9th in the Parish Center. Doors will open at 6:00PM with the trivia competition beginning at 7:00PM. It's a great night of fun for people of all ages. Know that friends and family members are welcome. If you don't have a team of eight please sign up and we'll create a team. This is a great way to meet new people. The price is $10 per person which makes this an extremely affordable night since you will be bringing your own food and beverages from home. Reservations and payment can be made at the parish office and tickets will be sold after Masses this weekend.

Thanks to all those who have obtained an empty baby bottle in order to support the great work of The Women's Centers who are pro-life and support newborn families in need. There are still bottles available in the Narthex. Please return your baby bottle in the back of church or in the parish office by Sunday, November 3rd.

Many thanks to all those who planned, worked, and attended Oktoberfest held on October 5th that was sponsored by our Family School Association. The weather was beautiful, the food was great, and those who attended appeared to have a great time. I am grateful for those who donated gifts for the raffle baskets which enabled this event to be a financial success to provide services for our children. Even though an event such as Oktoberfest does not raise a lot of money, it is a community builder. And that's what our Lord and the early church was all about building relationships in the spirit of the Gospel of Jesus. We at St. Alexander are a strong parish due to the fact that people work together in harmony to be a beacon of light of Christ in the southwest side.

Please continue to keep our first, second, seventh and eighth grade school and RE children in your prayers as they either start or continue their preparation to receive the Sacrament of Eucharist and the Sacrament of Confirmation. This weekend at the 11:30AM Mass, our first grade children will receive a special blessing and a spiritual gift to remind them of the importance of the Eucharist as they begin their spiritual journey in preparation for First Holy Communion in May, 2026. This is also a good opportunity for we as adults to remind ourselves that we have been blessed with the Body and Blood of Christ and the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit that should guide our lives each and every day.

Congratulations to our school principal Mrs. Sharon O'Toole who was recognized by the Archdiocese of Chicago for exceptional leadership during National Principal's Month. Mrs. O'Toole's leadership was rewarded for her deep commitment to Catholic identity and the mission of Catholic education. Mrs. O'Toole is fully invested in the mission of St. Alexander School as a ministry of our parish. She is an early adopter of initiatives in the archdiocese that support the formation of teachers and new approaches to support student engagement and learning. Also she truly generates positive energy not only at St. Alexander School but by encouraging and setting an example for principals in other archdiocesan schools. We are truly blessed to have Mrs. O'Toole as our principal.

God Bless,
Father Marty

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

Near my house there is a school for the blind. Often, I see blind people learning how to navigate the world with only a walking stick, even on a busy street with roaring traffic. I'm amazed to see how adept and carefully they get around without sight. Nevertheless, often a sadness arises in me that he or she cannot see all the beautiful colors, images, and persons filling the world around them. Those days, I find myself deeply grateful for the basic privilege of sight.

That's part of why the mystery of Jesus as the sight-giver is so moving to me. This week, it's wonderful how Bartimaeus the blind man is no longer content with his limitation and bellows out his desire for Jesus' mercy. In beautiful simplicity, he cries out to the Lord, "Master, let me receive my sight." Jesus quietly heals his sight. And off he goes, fully taking in the world around him. Imagine the delightful new way in which he is able to respond to the world.

Like blind Bartimaeus and the courageous people in my neighborhood, we may be able to get around reasonably well in our daily lives. But we are blind to the gestures of heroic love of people close to us. We can't see the desperate need of the hungry, thirsty, imprisoned, exploited, endangered, and so on, in our midst. We can't see Jesus drawing near to us in so many ways, but he is. This Sunday let's cry out to him: Lord have mercy on me! I want to see! And little by little — or perhaps in a flash — we'll see once again, or perhaps for the first time.

— Father John Muir

Today's Readings: Jer 31:7-9/Ps 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6 (3)/Heb 5:1-6/Mk 10:46-52

WORD OF LIFE

“The witness of our Blessed Mother [in the Gospel account of her visit to her pregnant cousin, Elizabeth,] invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our own parishes and communities. ... Mary’s witness is an invitation to step out in love and compassion. It is a summons to make haste to help vulnerable women who may be isolated and alone.”

A Prayer for "Renew My Church"

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today, as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us. In every age and in our own time, you call to us and say: Renew My Church.

*Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us*

to hear you clearly to listen to each other attentively to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously

to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations

*May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints.
May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.*

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen
