Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time The Palos Catholic
September 10, 2023

23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother.”
- Mt 18:15

FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

Tomorrow, we remember that twenty-two years ago our great nation was attacked by terrorists. Many fine Americans lost their lives as the twin towers were destroyed, the Pentagon damaged, and another plane crashed in Pennsylvania. America was attacked by cowardly fanatics because we stand for liberty, justice, freedom, equality, freedom of religion, democracy, and many more human rights. As a nation we continue to mourn the loss of loved ones who perished that day including those responders who sacrificed their lives attempting to save others. Let us keep in our prayers those who died and those families and friends who mourn the loss of loved ones.

Let us also pray for those in the military, police, firemen and all who work to protect this great nation. We must continue to pray for peace in the world and an end to terrorism. May we hope and pray that the United States will continue to be a beacon of light to the world bringing the love of Christ to all that long for peace and unity.

Please remember our St. Alexander Athletic Association Golf Outing will be held on Friday, October 6th at Waters Edge Golf Club. Spread the word to your family and friends and try to put a foursome together. Turn to page twelve for more information on the outing and how to register.

After celebrating Labor Day we realize this summer is soon coming to an end. As we enter the autumn season many of us are frustrated, angry, burned out, lonely and are experiencing many different feelings and worries. How do we deal with the stresses and strains of our lives during these difficult times? How do we deal with people who intrude upon our space and our peacefulness? What do we do when faced with chaos? Do we turn outwardly in anger or do we turn inwardly to find the peace of God? We truly need to be in touch with our feelings. We need to say we are angry, confused, bewildered, empty, or whatever. We also need to get in touch with what grounds us as a whole human being.

Centering or focusing ourselves on God is one way to find peace in the midst of turmoil. It takes a little time to get centered and focused and it takes time to get in touch with God. Let us all make sure that we take time and find the peace of God within ourselves. There are many ways to achieve this peace of God, and the best way to do this is through daily prayer, reflection, and celebrating Mass in our beautiful church.

God Bless,
Father Marty

Home Bound or Ill?

If you, or someone you know, are unable to attend Mass and would like to receive communion in their home, please call either Deacon Jim Horton or Deacon Fran Pendergast at 708-448-4861.

WORD OF LIFE

“By our baptism, we are members of Christ’s body and sharers in his mission. Imitating Christ, we must care for all members of our communities, honoring each person as unique, sacred, and created in the image of God.”

—USCCB, “Open Wide Our Hearts”

Contact the parish office if you would like to have a Mass intention for 2023 and 2024. Please note that Mass intentions are not just for the deceased but for anyone you would like to include in prayer.

Prayers of the Faithful for the Sick

As the faith family of St. Alexander, we unite with one another to pray for those who need healing of their body, mind or spirit. Confident that God hears the voices of those who trust in the Lord Jesus, we join in prayer for:

If you or anyone in your family would like to be added to our Prayers of the Faithful for the Sick please contact the Parish Administrative Office by noon on Friday.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? You know who I’m talking about. That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who is quite immoral. On this front there are two lively options in our culture: bash the person to others (probably online) or pretend everything’s fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do?

Jesus’ strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord’s strategy, “If your brother sins against you...” Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren’t our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others’ sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times — frequently, perhaps — they simply are not.

— Father John Muir

RCIA

Are you curious about the Catholic Faith?

If any of these reasons apply, RCIA might be exactly what you're looking for!

(RCIA means The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

1. You're marrying a Catholic. (Sharing and practicing your faith together is a great foundation for married life.)
2. You're already married to a Catholic and your children are being raised Catholic. (It's natural to want to feel a closer bond by sharing in the sacraments with family.)
3. Your children are learning about the Catholic faith. (You'd like to learn more about this faith tradition, still unsure if you'd like to become a Catholic..)
4. You've lived in a "Catholic world" all your life, so people assume you are already Catholic. (You'd like to find out if you are closer than you think in mind and heart.)
5. You don't know much about Catholicism, but a friend or neighbor has inspired you to learn more. (With no strings attached, this is a wonderful way to check things out.)
6. You have experienced personal loss or family struggles. (You are seeking ways to deepen your spiritual life by exploring the Catholic faith tradition.)

You don't know why, but you feel something urging you to the Catholic Church. (It's probably the Holy Spirit.)

Our RCIA sessions begin in September. If you are interested in joining us, contact Fr. Marty at the parish office (708) 448-4861 or Deacon Mike at mciciura@archchicago.org

During the first week of school Father Mitchell went into all the classrooms to bless the students and welcome them back to school.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Married in 1973?

Have you registered for the annual Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass?

Couples celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary from across the Archdiocese of Chicago are invited to gather together for the Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass that will be celebrated by Cardinal Cupich on Sunday, September 17, 2023 at 2:30 p.m. The Mass will be held at Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago, Illinois.

Please email gwa@archchicago.org or contact your parish office with any questions. To register online, please visit pvm.archchicago.org/events/golden-wedding.

We hope to see you there!

We're in need of Communion Ministers and Readers for Saturday evening and Sunday Masses. Volunteer as often or as little as you can. Training will be provided. If interested, please contact Joan in the parish office at 708-448-4861. Thank you!

MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS

If any parish ministry or organization would like to have an announcement made at Mass we ask that you please have the information to the office by noon on Friday. This allows us to compile the books we need for weekend liturgies by the end of Friday. Also, please limit announcements to one or two sentences.

PRAY FOR OUR

MILITARY

St. Alexander Parish lists the names of active military of parishioners and their family members in our weekly bulletin. We keep them in our thoughts and prayers as they protect our country and freedom.

If you have a relative who is an active member in the United States Military and would like them listed in the bulletin, contact Nancy at the Parish Office, 448-4861. Please inform us if the service person listed is no longer active in the military at home or abroad.

Our Knights of Columbus Council #14057 would like to offer military families Blue Star Banners. If you would like to receive a Blue Star Banner, please call the Parish Office at 708-448-4861.
